Congress Will Fight For All Muslim Seats

JAWAHAR EXPOSES FALLACY OF JINNAH'S PAKISTAN

PANDIT JAWAHARLAL NEHRU ANNOUNCED THAT THE CONGRESS WOULD CONTEST ALL THE SEATS TO THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURES. "WE ARE NOT GOING TO LEAVE ANY SEAT UNCONTESTED", HE DECLARED, ADDRESSING A PRESS CONFERENCE ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

GREETS PRESS WITH "JAI HIND"

Pandit Nehru greeted the representatives of the Press with a "Jai Hind". When questions were placed before him, he stated that there was a host of them and he did not know where to begin. There were all kinds of questions from the latest Henderson's reply in the Commons to possibilities of the atomic bomb.

Pandit Nehru was jovial at the conference. When academic and economic questions were put to him he confessed that they were a little above him. He added that safety lay in his not going into details.

With regard to Mr. Arthur Henderson's reply, stating that Pandit Nehru's visit to Java was undesirable, he said that conditions in Java were undoubtedly critical. It was because conditions were critical, he wanted to go. He was not going there for a pleasure trip. He added that the objective which he had in view was different from that of the Under-Secretary for India.

ISSUE OF PAKISTAN

Pandit Nehru dwelt at length on the question of Pakistan on which Mr. Jinnah had expressed himself recently. He said that to compel large masses of population with the help of the British Government or by the League itself was an unthinkable proposition, impossible of realization, whatever happened.

He announced that the Congress proposed to contest every Muslim seat in all the Provinces in the Provincial elections He could not mention at the moment whether Congress would do it directly or indirectly.

The Conference lasted for an hour and a half.

"It seems to be obvious," said Pandit Nehru, discussing Mr. Jinnah's view of Pakistan as stated by him in a recent interview, "that according to Mr. Jinnah's promises, his definition of Pakistan is completely wrong. That is to say, Mr. Jinnah includes the whole of the Punjab, Bengal, Assam and Delhi Province. Now, everybody knows that southern Punjab and western Bengal and Deuhi Province are predominantly non-Muslim.

"This means either the non-Muslim population agree or is compelled to accept Pakistan. Obviously, whatever the Muslim population might think, everybody knows that the Hindus and Sikhs are entirely opposed to it.

"Therefore, the only alternative is to compel them, with the help of British Government or by the League itself.

NO COMPULSION

"Therefore, Pakistan in the form stated by Mr. Jinnah is an unthinkable proposition and impossible of realization, whatever happens. Pakistan can be conceived only in terms of those areas where there is a predominantly Muslim population.

And even then, the population of that whole area should have the final and deciding voice and not Muslim alone. It is obvious that "this question will not be decided by the Muslim League or by the Congress.

It will have to be decided ultimately by the people of India as a whole. And it is equally obvious that in any such decision, any large-scale compulsion cannot be and must not be a part.

"The Congress says that Pakistan does not solve any issue and creates many new problems. At the same time, it does realise that every unit or province or community in India must have the fullest opportunities of living its own life and self-growth without compulsion from outside.

FEDERAL BOND

That was why, it was suggested that the largest amount of freedom should be given to every area in India and only certain minimum subjects which might be called federal, and which in any event have to be common subjects like Defence, Communications, etc., even if there was separation.

Mr. Jinnah, Pandit Nehru pointed out, referred to safeguards. The same agreements could, of course, be applied to India as a whole, he added.

TWO-NATION THEORY

"The conception of Pakistan as put forward by the Muslim League is not a territorial conception, but one based on what is called the two-nation theory. According to that, bits of Pakistan exist all over India and in case of a division of India, we would have a large alien population in each of the divided parts. No State can have any stability on that basis. Inevitably, there must be common bonds, however small and limited they may be between all parts of India.

"In all the various parts of India, it might be possible to have what might be called a compulsory minimum of common bond or federal subjects or an optional list which each could choose to accept at its pleasure. This would give a great deal of freedom to a unit subject to its associating itself with the Centre."

WHAT ABOUT COUNTRY'S POVERTY

The division of India, said Pandit Nehru, might lead to a sense of insecurity and there would be friction, and rivalries and suspicions, and all those factors would hamper the solution of the main problem, the poverty of India. India had to make up some 150 years' arrested growth, he added.

Whenever a constitution was conceived, said Pandit Nehru, it was conceived on the lines suggested by the British Government for the last several generations. People had got into mental ruts, whenever they thought in terms of constitutions, he added. There was no reason why India could not think of a constitution on the lines of Russia, for instance, he said. The whole problem had to be considered afresh.

ELECTION PROSPECTS

Pandit Nehru, discussing election prospects, said that the question of the success of the Congress in the general constituencies did not arise at all. However, the position regarding the Muslim seats was different. At the moment, he could think of his own Province, the United Provinces. But even here his knowledge was not complete but he guessed that about 25 to 30 seats out of 66 Muslim seats, would be secured by the Congress. He added that many seats were being lost or won by small margins. He thought that this was to be true probably in regard to seats captured but certainly in regard to votes polled. In the Centre, the League would do better than in the Provinces, because, the franchise was restricted and the Congress appealed to a wider electorate than to a limited electorate.

But one thing was obvious. The Muslim League, in no province, as far as he could see, could have an absolute majority. The question, therefore, arose of coalitions with other groups. But by itself, the Muslim League could not form a government in any province.

ON ATTLEE'S STATEMENT

Referring to Mr. Attlee's recent statement that freedom for India was there for the taking, Pandit Nehru jocularly remarked: "It is a terminological inexactitude." India could not have independence for the taking. It was not there. It was hedged in by various provisos for agreement from parties and interests and from the British Government. The fair position for the British Government was to

Liaquat Ali Faces Defeat

(U.P.I.): The defeat of Nawabzada Liaquat Ali Khan and Khan Bahadur Ghazanfar Ullah, the League candidates from the Meerut and Rohilkhand Kumaon Mohammadan Constituencies, respectively was predicted in very strong terms by Maulana Bashir Ahmad, Secretary of the Nationalist Muslim Party and Maulana Abdul Majis who have just returned from a tour of the constituencies. ATTLEE REMOVES AMERICAN "MISCONCEPTIONS"

LABOUR PARTY POLICY AND PROGRAMME EXPLAINED

TELLS U. S. CONGRESS HE LOOKS FORWARD TO ERA OF ANGLO-AMERICAN CO-OPERATION FOR BETTER WORLD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (A.P.A.): Prime Minister Attlee today told the United States Congress that the foundations of peace must be laid in "prosperity and good neighbourliness".

There is "no reason", he said, for economic rivalry between Britain and the United States.

Addressing the Senators and Representatives in Congress who must approve any financial aid for Britain, Attlee frankly sought to remove what he called "some misapprehensions" about his Labour party's program.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (Reuter): The British Prime Minister, Mr. Clement Attlee, to-day broke away from his vital talks on atomic energy with President Truman and Mr. MacKenzie King to warn the American nation and the world in a speech to a joint session of the Congress that "the greatest task that faces us today is to bring home to all people before it is too late that our civilisation can only survive by acceptance and practice in international relations and in our national life of the Christian principle that we are all members one of another."

MENACE TO WORLD.

I hold that the United Nations Organisation, in which I profoundly believe, must be something more than an agreement between Governments. It must be an expression of the will of the common people in every country."

Warning that defensive frontiers, mountain barriers and oceans were no longer an obstacle to military attack, Mr. Attlee declared:

"In a few years devastating weapons which are at present being developed may menace every part of the world, so in the case of the [illegible] particular in the light of the [illegible] of these atomic bomb that I have entered into discussion with your President that we may get together with all the nations of the world to consider what kind of world it is necessary to have if civilisation is to endure and if the common man in all lands is to feel secure. But in facing world problems as we must, it is a great mistake in my view to think constantly of war and prevention of war. We have to think rather of the best means of building up peace."

THAT WISE PROVISION.

Mr. Attlee was generous in his praise of the American war effort and its direct aid to Britain and referred directly to "that wise and generous provision of Lend-Lease".

Recalling how the United States entered the war slowly at first and then swiftly developed to take the weight from those who had borne the burden in the early years of the war, Mr. Attlee declared:

"To-day the United States stands out as the mightiest power on earth. And yet America is a threat to no one. All know that she will never use her power for selfish aims, or territorial aggrandisement in the future any more than she has done in the past.

"We look upon her forces and our own forces, and those of other nations as instruments that must never be employed save in the interest of world security and the repression of the aggressor."

Bluntly telling American Congressmen of his view of Anglo-American cooperation, Mr. Attlee added:

"I look forward to an era of increasing cooperation and friendship between the United States and Britain—not as being an exclusive friendship but as a contribution to knitting together with all peoples through the United Nations Organisation in bonds of peace".

TRAGIC FOLLY OF WAR

Mr. Attlee was also frank about the comparative suffering endured by the combatant nations. "You here have lost great numbers of the flower of your young men", he said. "So have we in Britain. So have all countries who have been engaged in this great struggle. But you have been

Anglo-American Plan To Solve Palestine Issue

LONDON, Nov. 13. (Reuter):

The establishment of an Anglo-American Committee to review the Palestine problem is announced by the British Foreign Secretary, Mr. Ernest Bevin, this afternoon to the House of Commons which cheered when he revealed that the United States had agreed to join with Britain in devising a final settlement of the long-standing dispute.

AGREED TERMS

Mr. Bevin announced the following terms of reference agreed between the United States Government and His Majesty's Government:

Firstly, to examine the political, economic and social conditions in Palestine as they bear upon the problem of Jewish immigration and settlement therein and the well-being of the people now living therein.

Secondly, to examine the position of Jews in those countries in Europe where they have been victims of Nazi and Fascist persecution and the practical measures taken or contemplated to be taken in those countries to enable them to live free from discrimination and oppression and to make estimates of those who wish or will be impelled by conditions to migrate to Palestine or other countries outside Europe.

Thirdly, to hear the views of competent witnesses and to consult representative Arabs and Jews on problems of Palestine as such problems are affected by conditions subject to examination under paras 1 and 2 above and by other relevant facts and circumstances and to make recommendations to His Majesty's Government and the Government of the United States for interim handling of these problems as well as for their permanent solution.

Fourthly, to make such other recommendations to His Majesty's Government and the Government of the United States as may be necessary to meet the immediate needs arising from the conditions subject to examination under Para 2 above by remedial action in the European countries in question or by the provision of facilities for immigration to and settlement in countries outside Europe.

That ends the terms of reference.

The procedure of the Committee will be determined by the Committee itself and it will be open to them if they think fit to deal simultaneously through the medium of sub-committees with various terms of reference.

The Committee will be invited to deal with the matters referred to under the terms of reference with utmost expedition.

In complying with the second and fourth para of the terms of reference the Committee will presumably take such steps as they consider necessary in order to inform themselves of the character and magnitude of the problem created by the war.

They will also give consideration to the problems of settlement in Europe and the possible countries of dispersal.

The recommendations of the Committee such as will be set up will be of immense help in arriving at a solution of the Palestine problem.

The Committee in accordance with the first and third parts of the Terms of Reference will make examination on the spot of the political, economic and social conditions which are at present held to restrict immigration into Palestine and after consulting representatives of Arabs and Jews submit proposals for dealing with these problems.

The message says: "India today is a vast powder magazine with explosive potentialities exceeding those at any period Indo-British history since the mutiny. An alarming number of British residents including high officials have in the past remained strangely insensitive to the pervading atmosphere of half-veiled hostility and distrust. But the least imaginative or politically-minded among them cannot remain unaware of the steadily rising hymn of hate blared at them day after day in the Congress press and by the Congress Party leader Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

OUT OF HAND

The message adds: "Tiptop older residents who remember the troublous times of Mr. Gandhi's mass civil disobedience movement and are apt wrongly perhaps to rate the abortive 'rebellion' of 1942 as a lesser peril have an uneasy feeling that the situation is rapidly getting out of hand. They believe that if Congress fire-eaters persist in their campaign of vilification of everything British, 'anything can happen.'

Some allowance must be made for the heated atmosphere of the pre-election period and for the desire of the Congress leaders to reassert their position in the popular eye at a time when they are well aware of the growing strength of Mr. Jinnah's Muslim party and its Pakistan campaign. Unfortunately, the elections for the Central Government are not due until the end of the year, with the Provincial elections to follow a little later so that there is plenty of time for the atmosphere to grow more heated still.

INDIAN NATIONAL ARMY

"The situation is aggravated by two other issues—employment of Indian troops against the Indonesian nationalists in Java and the trials of those Indians who joined the Indian 'National' Army as Allies of the Japanese. The wave of hysteria with which Congress has sought to engulf the country over this latter issue has already widened the gulf between Indians and the British.

What is worse it has irreparably split in twain many Indian families. Some of their sons staunchly and at the peril of their lives resisted the blandishments of Subhas Chandra Bose and his associates in Burma and Malaya, while their brothers joined Bose's so-called patriot army and now await trial in Delhi's Red Fort as traitors.

Moderation has been cast away by the Congress leaders whose election campaigning speeches reek with anti-British sentiment. In not a few instances these speeches seem to be a direct incitement to the masses to free themselves from what the Congress press calls 'foreign yoke.'

SACRILEGE?

"Thus in the heart of the Imperial capital last week Mr. Asaf Ali, member of the Congress 'High Command', said: 'Delhi has seen many revolutions. Every street and mohalla in the city is steeped in blood. We are on the threshold of another revolution.'

For violence of language and racial intolerance no one has outdone Pandit Nehru whose electioneering speeches in Delhi last week contained so much of sheer malice and what can only be described as deliberate distortion of youth. Thev were followed by an interview with the Viceroy, Lord Wavell. What transpired is unknown, but it must have been equally embarrassing for both men.

"JINNAH MORE WISHFUL THAN FACTUAL"

LAHORE, Nov. 12. (A.P.I.): The view that Mr. Jinnah by his latest statement has pricked the bubble of the two-nation theory and admitted that the Congress is not a Hindu organisation is expressed by Professor Abdul Majid Khan, a prominent nationalist of the Punjab.

He says: "It is refreshing and gratifying to note that Mr. Jinnah has slightly climbed down from his high pedestal and that he has at last owned that he only claims 'to represent an overwhelming majority of the Mussalmans of India'. For what is an overwhelming majority to-day may become a large majority to-morrow, and be reduced to a minority the day after. In the sphere of politics there is no such thing as a permanent majority or an unalterable minority. The existence of political parties, divided by broad issues of economic policies rather than by communal or religious interests, and the presence of a mobile body of political opinion and economic trends, owing to enduring allegiance to any party, constitute the pith of Democratic Parliamentary Government.

"Even the foregoing claim of Mr. Jinnah is more wishful than factual, because at the 1937 elections out of 73 lakh Muslim votes the Muslim League could secure only about three lakhs. Besides the existing franchise is ridiculously limited and the Nationalist Muslims can safely claim that they represent about ninety per cent of the Muslims who do not enjoy the right of vote at the moment.

KHAKSAR LEADER'S OFFER TO JINNAH

Allama Mashriqui, the Leader of the Khaksar, has sent the following letter to Mr. M. A. Jinnah:—

"Letters No. 19246 and No. 19736 were sent to you along with a copy of the Constitution of Free India framed under the auspices of the Khaksar Organisation on the 6th October last and I feel sure that by this time you have gone through the contents of the Constitution. I am sending you a copy of the above letters for ready reference.

As the elections are drawing near and as your own election as a member of the Central Assembly is to be held within the next few weeks, I shall be glad to know from you if you propose to stand on the Constitution ticket, as in that case I shall have to make adequate arrangements for the purpose of getting you elected against those whose opposition you have to face. In case you propose to stand on the Constitution ticket please let me know all possible particulars about the seat you are contesting, the number of Khaksars you require for the purpose of achieving success, the nature of the work you would require in this connection. I understand that your seat is going to be bitterly contested, but the Khaksar organisation will leave no stone unturned in giving you the maximum amount of assistance in this respect.

I have already explained in the letters quoted above the aim of the Khaksar organisation of creating a united front for the purpose of securing freedom for India at the earliest moment. Unfortunately in some places there has been the misunderstanding among the Muslim League people that the Khaksars are against the League and they have made demonstrations to that effect resulting in serious breach of peace. I am glad that you issued a statement some time back to the effect that the Muslim League people should not attend our meetings at such places. Owing, however, to the fact that some disturbance occurred at the meeting I addressed in Bombay on the 9th instant and that Muslim League people afterwards attacked the office of Khaksar organisation in Bhendi Bazar at 1 a.m. at night, I would request that more stringent orders be issued by you to that effect in order that such quarrels may not take more serious shape. With best wishes."

INDIAN WOMEN TO PROTEST

Hyderabad Conference & Indonesian Movement

The General Meeting and the Constituent Conference of the Bombay Women's Association (A.I.W.C.), was held under the Presidentship of Lady Rama Rau, at the Vanita Vishram Hall, on Saturday, November 10, when the following six delegates were elected to the 18th Session of the All-India Women's Conference to be held at the Hyderabad (Sind) in the month of December 1945:—Miss Kapila Khandvala; Mrs. Jayashri Raiji; Miss Najoo Wadia; Miss Manjoo Nadkarni; Mrs. Sarojini Mehta and Mrs. Premlata Jaykar.

The meeting then approved the Half-yearly report of the work done by the Association and unanimously passed resolutions expressing their sentiments on the current topics of the day such as (1) Postponement of the trials of Indian National Army; (2) relaxation of Defence of India Rules and the release of Congressmen and Political prisoners; (3) Food Rationing; (4) Unemployment; (5) Preparation of the Charter of Women's Rights; (6) Spread of Primary Education; (7) Prof. Adarkar's Scheme on 'Health Insurance for Workers'; (8) Need for Popular Govt; (9) Harijan work; (10) Inclusion of adequate number of women in the Constituent Assembly and (11) protested the action of Govt. in using Indian troops in Indo-China and Indonesia to suppress the movement of the people in those countries, etc. etc., for being moved at the 18th Session of the All-India Women's Conference.

WOMEN'S CONSTITUENT CONFERENCE.

A Constituent Conference of all the Constituencies of the All-India Women's Conference, Bombay, will be held at the General Education Society's Chhabildas Lallubhai Boys' High School, (B.B. and C.I. Rly., Dadar) on Saturday, November 17, at 3-30 p.m. (S.T.) to consider the resolutions sent by all the Constituencies for being moved at the 18th Session of the All-India Women's Conference and to have a brief survey of the work done by all the Constituencies.

RAILWAY BOARD'S REPLY "EVASIVE"

Giri To Reiterate Plea For Adjudication

MADRAS, Nov. 13. (U.P.I.): Mr. V. V. Giri, President of the All-India Railwaymen's Federation, has received an intimation from the Railway Board that the representatives of the Federation can meet the Railway Board on December 5 next in order to discuss the questions concerning retrenchment, dearness allowance and other subjects concerning railwaymen.

Mr. Giri in the course of a statement says: "The Railway Board's response towards the Federation's demands has not been helpful and in many respects evasive. The Board is of the opinion that no useful purpose will be served by their joining the Federation in their request to the Government for the appointment of a tribunal. I am unable to understand why the Railway Board should feel shy to place its cards on the table before the court unless it considers that in the disputes between the workers and the employers, the latter can act both as judges and prosecutors at the same time. An attitude of that kind can never be appreciated by the Trade Union organisations.

"However, let me hope the Board will meet the Federation on December 5 with a view to discuss and reconsider the points raised and to see if they cannot avoid retrenchment and grant other demands. If the talks fail we shall have to reiterate our request to the Government to appoint an adjudicator or court for settling the dispute".

No Improvement In India's Food Situation

Free Movement Of Supplies From Abroad Will Take Time, Says Food Secretary

NEW DELHI, Nov. 12 (API): Mr. R. H. Hutchings, Food Secretary to the Government of India, broadcasting to-day on the future of food from the Delhi station of All-India Radio said: That the establishment of improved and universally accepted standards of quality, the use of rationing to introduce now and alternative foods, the provision, as in the Bombay milk scheme, of special food for women and children, and the production of vitamin compounds, were all examples of what the future might hold and should hold for India.

Mr. Hutchings added: "Individuals have had to accept rationing without regard to class, wealth, or privilege. There may be much that is inconvenient and unpleasant about it, but I suggest to you that we should at least pause, before we throw all this away. I sometimes think that what we have done under stress of war in the distribution of food, may be a pioneer to what could be done with other necessaries of life, if we are really determined to secure social justice and world peace. Whatever may be your answer to that question in its long term aspect. I am afraid that we have no choice so far as food is concerned in the Burma, Siam and French Indo-China is an undoubted blessing. But we are not yet free to make unrestricted use of what they can offer. Production and movement all over the world will take time to restore to normal levels, and, in the meanwhile, world allocations must continue to be by the combined food boards at Washington and the shipping will have to be carefully planned to make these allocations effective. While that continues, neither the Government of India, nor Indian traders can operate as free agents in procuring supplies from abroad, and our own resources must be carefully husbanded."

IMPERIALISM TWIN TO FASCISM

Indian Independence Benefits Br. Empire Says Mrs. Pandit

RUSTAN (Louisiana), Nov. 13 (Reuter): Mrs. Vijayalaxmi Pandit addressing a gathering of 3,500 people at the Louisiana Technical University last night declared that India was now in the same position as America in 1775 and would advance as rapidly if given an opportunity.

She declared that no nation should be given the right to rule over another and added "Imperialism is twin to Fascism". She said that Indian independence would be as beneficial to the British Empire as was United States Independence.

Mrs. Pandit compared the Asiatic people with the Russia of 200 years ago and stated that the future of world economic affairs will centre around Asia with India as the leader.

They made inquiries about the number of guests and especially about the several consuls of the eastern countries who attended the parties and whose pictures were flashed on the page.

Mr. Joachim Alva, editor of the magazine, declined to tender any information.

When Atom Bomb Was In Making

Manufacturers & Rlys. Co-operated To Do Perfect Job

'Manhattan', The Camouflaged Name For Secret Project, Keeps In Dark All Except Officers-in-Charge!

THE SECOND OF SERIES WRITTEN ON ATOM BOMB BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE A.P.A. SCIENCE EDITOR, IS AS UNDER:—

OAK RIDGE, TENNESSEE, Nov 12 (A.P.A.): A meter about the size of a small radio rode on the freight trucks that brought strange and hitherto unheard-of parts to the vast atomic bomb plants here.

The meter registered severity of every bump, whether the trip was 100 or 1000 miles. It gave the railway incentive to be extra careful in shunting the trucks.

Many of these rare and delicate fabrications were shipped on trucks equipped with special springs. In one of the plants here there was no item of equipment of major importance that was not both new and different.

Although this plant alone carried thousands of different types of spare parts, there were fabrications, so unusual and difficult that only one could be made in time to meet the rush requirements.

RAILWAYS DO PERFECT JOB

Safe transport of bulky parts became a major need. The railways did a perfect job under the department of procurement and dilivery, headed by Col. W. J. Williams.

"It is my opinion," he said, 'that without free and independent enterprise and thinking, we never could have done this job."

The army asked manufacturers to make things they had never heard of and many of which had never before been made at all. The manufacturr had to take on faith the promise that his contribution would be worth while. He could not be told what it was for.

Most of them took the attitude that, if it can be done, we will do it. The head of one great company signed a contract to do a seemingly impossible job before he was told even what was to be made.

'MANHATHAN' WAS THE WORD

Time has always a big handicap. The industrialists would give quickest time they figured to produce the parts, only to be told that was not fast enough. Many means were adopted to secure the necessary speed-up. "Sometimes it was the top priority which the atomic bomb had above all other wartime projects. "Manhattan," the camouflage name for the project, got to mean right-of-way in industry." Wherever possible the officers in charge took lower priorities so as not to attract undue attention.

Some officers were manufacturers in private life. More than once one of them tsepped into a plant like his own to re-organize production and do the job on time.

It is notable that the industries never failed on the jobs assigned. In some cases plants were erected especially to make new kinds of chemical compounds. Notable among these were cooling compounds to replace water for that purpose.

The Portuguese Primate, Monsignor Antonio Benedito Martins, Archbishop of Braga, has instructed the clergy to take no part in political activities.

ATTLEE'S PLAN WILL SAFEGUARD PEACE

British Press Endorses Premier's Atom Bomb Policy

LONDON Nov. 13 (Reuter).—The British Prime Minister, Mr. Clement Attlee's plan for internationalising of atomic bomb by entrusting its secrets to the Security Council of the United Nations organisation is generally endorsed in leading British newspapers today, although there is no tendency to underrate the difficulties, which may attend the putting into action of the plan.

The papers agree that the plan is well-designed to establish confidence between Russia and the Western Powers and to "restore Russia to the concert of powers."

The Conservative "Yorkshire Post' advances the opinion in a leading article that "the scheme is better calculated than any other so far advanced to safeguard the peace of the world."

"It had been said that to entrust the bomb to the United Nations Organisation means to put it at the disposal of a number of major powers to the exclusion of minor ones. But the implication that such a method would be a concession to power politics is untrue," says the "Yorkshire Post."

"The secret of the bomb would enhance the superiority of major powers, but it would not create it and it would enormously increase their ability to keep the peace.

"The great merit of the scheme is that its acceptance must benefit the whole community of nations without demanding undue sacrifice from any," the paper says.

The belief that search for security is the dominant motive in Russian policy is expressed by the same newspaper, which asserts that the appalling losses Russians have suffered have in a large measure dictated their policy.

"It may perhaps be hoped that particular weight will be given to these considerations in the United States, where public opinion normally is not oblivious of claims of security," the paper says.

The article concludes by urging that American suspicion about the motives of Russian policy should be met by a statement of Russian demands "the reasonableness of which it would be for other powers to assess."

The liberal "Manchester Guardian" in a leading article describes the plan as going all the way "to meeting Russian suspicions that the Western Allies are holding back something from her which might be turned to her detriment. But fear is not one-sided and Russians, having seen the dangerous drift since the failure of the London Conference, must realise that something is needed from them also," the paper states.

MIRAJ, Nov. 12 (U.P.I.): The Raja Saheb of Jamkhandi has dissolved the Jamkhandi State Legislative Assembly and has extended the term of appointment of Mr. Baugi, the present Popular Minister, till fresh elections to the Assembly are held and a new Minister is appointed.

Aga Khan On Pakistan

Need For Immediate Hindu-Muslim Settlement

CALCUTTA, Nov. 11.

His Highness the Aga Khan, leader of 1,000,000 Muslims in India and 10,000,000 all over the world, interviewed in Calcutta yesterday expressed surprise that any one should look upon Pakistan as something revolutionary.

"We have already so many Pakistans in India", he said and quoted the Indian states of Mysore, Hyderabad (Dn.), Kashmir as some kind of Pakistans.

"They may not be full Pakistans because they are protected by treaties with the paramount power, but the fundamental principle of Pakistan is there".

"Really" he added, "Pakistan is one of the points I would like Mahatma Gandhi, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and Mr. Jinnah to discuss and come to an agreement. I want to see the Congress and the Muslim League join hands. My own view is that for the future of India and in the interests of the Congress, the Muslim League should grow strong, and then it would be possible for the two organisations to come together for effective purposes".

The Municipality has also secured the assent of other authorities concerned with whom the Company has entered into agreements in running the tramways in Calcutta, excepting the New Howrah Bridge Commissioner and the Government of India for tramways in the maidan area. The latter have replied that the matter had been referred to the Department concernd for early diposal.

The general terms and conditions for appointment of an Agent for running the undertaking on behalf of the Corporation were recently recommended by the Public Utilities and Markets Committee of the Corporation and tenders will shortly be called for the purpose.

"IT'S UPTO CHIANG TO END CIVIL WAR"

CHUNGKING, Nov. 12 (APA) A Communist spokesman said today the final issue of peace or civil war in China rested with Chiang Kai-Shek.

"If Chiang cancels his orders for 'bandit suppression' there can be peace," the spokesman said.

He added it was decided at a meeting of Government, Communist and Democratic League representatives yesterday to entrust outstanding issues to the Political Consultative Council which is to meet about November 20.

The three-party meeting decided the question of calling an immediate halt to hostilities would be the first item on the council's agenda.

The Communist spokesman disclosed that a note was sent to Tung Pou, Communist member of the Chinese delegation to the San Francisco Conference who is now in New York, asking him to act as one of the Communists' seven delegates to the council.

'Habeus Corpus' Application Challenges U.S. Jurisdiction

MANILA, Nov. 13 (Reuter): The Philippine Supreme Court has ordered Lieut.-General W.D. Styer, commanding American forces in Western Pacific, to show cause within five days why the trial of General Yamashita, the former Japanese Commander-in-Chief in the Philipines, should continue.

The defence had asked for writs of 'habeus corpus' and prohibition on grounds that the military lacked jurisdiction.

Nearly Three Lakhs On Strike In U. S.

LONDON, Nov. 12 (Reuter): The New York Radio to-day said that more than 275,000 workers are now on strike in the U. S. Further strikes were threatened in the electrical industry, whose 250,000 workers are claiming two dollars a day wage increase. A general strike in this industry would affect 76 plants in 22 states.

"Many thousands of steel workers are also on the verge of strikes as employers have not agreed to their claim for the two dollar rise", the radio added.

"In Detroit, negotiations are going on to avoid a strike of some 600,000 automobile workers".

ANGLO-SOVIET RELATIONS

Differences Should Not Be Exaggerated!

LONDON, Nov. 12 (Reuter). Mr. Philip Noel Baker, Minister of State, replying to questions on behalf of the Foreign Secretary in the Commons today, said that it was very important that the differences between the British and Soviet Governments should not be exaggerated.

He had been asked by Mr. Daniel Lipson (Independent) what steps he was taking to remove these differences.

"It would indeed be a miracle", Mr. Baker added, "if agreement could be reached at once on all great matters which in this after-the-war-period arise between the victorious powers.

Government will use various normal means of discussion between Governments as and when appropriate in order to reach an agreed solution by a progress of give and take on both sides in the spirit of the Anglo-Soviet treaty of alliance and Collaboration.

Mr. Samuel Silverman (Labour) asked: What is the use of asking other people to put their cards upon the table face upwards if we keep an ace up on sleeves?

Mr. Noel Baker did not reply.

Immigration Bill Has Slim Chance Of Passing Senate

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 (UPA): Congressional sources told the 'United Press of America' to-day that the possibility of the Indian Immigration Bill passing the Senate this season appeared more remote than ever due to the strong opposition of some key members of the Immigration Committee.

The Bill, after its passage by the House of Representatives in October, is now pending before the Senate Immigration Committee which has followed the usual procedure of asking the Department of Justice and the State Department for their opinion.

The State Department answered approving the Bill, but the Department of Justice thus far has not answered. Even when its reply is received, the Bill must win the approval of the Sub-Committee and then the Full Committee—each headed by men who appear to be opposed to the passage of the Bill.

One Federal Official, who does not wish to be quoted, told the proponents of the Bill that they are likely to have to be satisfied with the gesture of the House of Representatives as regards the passage of the Bill, at least as far as this session of the Congress is concerned.

"SHUT OFF VICIOUS PRINCIPLE OF PARITY"

Mahasabha Candidate's Election Manifesto

In the course of an appeal to voters Mr. Dhamdhere General Secretary of the Bombay Provincial Hindu Mahasabha says:—

I am standing as a candidate for election to the Central Legislative Assembly from the non-Mahomedan constituency of the city of Bombay.

The Hindu Mahasabha stands for complete independence in its fullest sense and for one united and undivided India, as it has been all the ages past. Further it insists that the constitution of this Akhand Hindusthan should be based on an absolutely democratic and federal form of Government with a strong paramount Central Power and with wide autonomy to Provincial Governments.

The Hindu Mahasabha offers equal rights and opportunities to all its citizens irrespective of any differences of creed, class of community. This naturally shuts off the vicious principle of Parity amongst about 22 per cent. Mussalmans and about 75 per cent. of Hindus lately introduced in Indian politics by interested parties.

The declaration of rights of all citizens in the future constitution of India and the wide and thoroughly nationalistic outlook on the political, social and economic problems of the Free Hindusthan are important features of the programme of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha.

The Hindu Mahasabha puts forth explicit and clear-cut as also firm and unswerving principles on which the new constitution should be based. The slogans of the elections cannot be 'Independence' and 'Quit India' as raised by the Congress as there is no party that does not agree to them. The outstanding issues are the unity and integrity of India without any camouflage of the principle of provincial self-determination, equality of all citizens in the composition of the Legislative or Executive branches of the constitution and the equality of opportunities and responsibilities to all citizens irrespective of their social and political standing. These are not to be pious wishes expressed as political shibboleths but they are deliberate convictions of the Hindi Mahasabha propounded for being acted upon at the right stage.

There is not a single phase or feature in their aims or policies where the Hindu Mahasabha have claimed for the Hindus any extra favours, concessions or rights. All the citizens in the land are to be absolutely equal in all respects as man to man according to Hindu Mahasabha and it stands by this against all odds.

The Parsis furnish an outstanding example of how a community can progress on its own strength, industry and capacity.

The Indian Christians have also been living peacefully amongst us since many centuries and the Hindus have been very tolerant to them all along.

You have two votes in this election and you can give them both to one candidate also I am the only candidate of the Hindu Mahasabha and I earnestly appeal to you—Hindus, Parsis, Christians and all—to record "both of your votes" in my favour and enable me to serve my city and my country in the light of principles and programmes of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha.

Please remember that the polling date is Monday 26th November 1945

Anti-European Boycott Increasing In Java

BATAVIA, Nov. 12 (UPA). Dutch circles today said the anti-European boycott in local markets had increased since the Sourabaya action, according to a United Press of America correspondent. Nationalist police were seen driving away European customers with revolvers and guards have been posted at the markets' entrances.

It was also reported that six officers of the Peoples' Peace Army in full uniform arrived from Central Java last night and reported to their headquarters in Batavia, which were later visited by a Japanese in civilian clothes who presumbaly met the Indonesians for the delivering of instructions.

Seventeen Indonesian strikers who landed in Batavia a few days ago from Abatch returning from Australia took part in the shooting against Dutch troops which has continued for the last 72 hours.

Sutan Sjahrir, President of the Working Committee of the Republican Government, told the United Press of America today he is "almost ready" for the formation of a new Republican cabinet. He said the cabinet list as in fact ready but the Prime Minister is awaiting approval of some of his candidates as well as Dr. Sukarno's final OK. Soekarno is due to return from Central Java tomorrow and will immediately go into the matter of the formation of the ministry. Sjahrir said rather sweeping changes may be expected.

Indian Troops To Occupy Siam?

British Terms To Siamese

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (U.P.A.)—American and Oriental sources familiar with South East Asia events told the United Press of America today that during the Kandy negotiations immediately following the Japanese surrender British officials presented the Siamese with twenty-one demands as a condition to the surrender.

According to one Siamese source, these demands "would have turned Siam into another protectorate similar to Egypt although the acceptance of the demands would have placed the British in a position almost tantamount to their control in India."

These demands are reported to have been withdrawn later and substituted by a military agreement which Admiral Mountbatten signed. The military agreement permitted British troops entry into Siam to disarm the Japanese and release prisoners of war.

Although no confirmation is available, observers speculated that the British demands were withdrawn because of United States pressure in support of Siamese independence, since the United States, officially, stoutly maintains that Siam, during the war, was as pro-Allied as any occupied nation, for example France under Vichy rule.

The United Press learned exclusively that the British demands included firstly, the occupation of Siam, presumably by Indian troops; secondly, the disarming of the Free Thai Army (which the United States Office of Strategic Services maintains co-operated fully with the American war effort throughout); thirdly, to control Siam's exports and imports; fourthly, "Allied" control over the production of Siam's raw materials; and fifthly, attachment of British political and legal advisers to the Siamese Government which the Siamese have contended would place their foreign policy under British control.

The United Press has been unable to obtain, thus far any definite indication as to what extent the United States is willing to oppose Britain in regard to Siam and has gained the impression that U.S. policy on this question is still in the process of formation.

LET ALL ASIATICS UNITE

Appeal To Indians

The Indonesian Students' Committee in India has issued the following appeal:—

We Indonesian Students' Committee in India, appeal to the good conscience of Indians to take up the cause of the Indonesian Republic as their own, for the freedom of Asia is one and indivisible. We know that inspite of all the Western people's professions of democracy, the war has been fought between imperialism and fascism.

Now the so-called democratic countries have won the war. They say, they fought the war for democracy and freedom; they fought for the liberation of the colonial peoples from the Axis' imperialism. 'Right is Might' was their motto. But it was a mere pretension. They have never said that they would not return to enslave the colonies after the liberation. Even the United Nations' Charter is pledged to restore the 'Old Order', the 'status quo' and the 'Old Imperialist Masters' to the subject countries. They loathe the application of Independence to the goal of colonial peoples. They have shown their true colour. But, unfortunately for the Imperialists, the colonial peoples have used this war to strengthen the forces of their Independence Movement Front as seen in India, Burma, Indo-China and Indonesia.

We are witnessing the greatest freedom battles in Indonesia and Indo-China. Now the Imperialists want to deprive Indonesians and Indo-Chinese of their own newly-won freedom so that they may be free to exploit again.

The Indonesians and Indo-Chinese are not illusioned about the real intentions of the imperialist powers towards them. And the almost unarmed Indonesians and Indo-Chinese are determined to defend their freedoms against the mighty imperialist powers.

But the irony of all this and the tragedy of all tragedies are the use of Indian army and navy to crush the freedoms of Indonesia and Indo-China.

From time immemorial we have been good neighbours and will ever be good neighbours, otherwise there will be no future for the whole of Asia. Let us look at the game of the Imperialist powers, they rise together or they sink together. The imperialism of one nation cannot be maintained without the cooperation of the others'. More truly so the freedom of Asia as well as its slavery cannot be divided. Therefore, all Asia must unite.

British arms and Indian man's power have been inseparable combination to win the two world wars. This good combination should not be used to crush and destroy the Indonesian Republicans and Indo-Chinese Nationalist. The Indonesians and Indo-Chinese have appealed directly to the Indian soldiers on the spot to stop fighting against their own brothers and sisters in Indonesia and Indo-China who are fighting, like Indian nationals in India for their cherished freedoms. But, alas! the Indian soldiers have not listened to their appeal.

It is now upto the Indian people to defend their honour by effecting immediate withdrawal of their troops and seamen used against the freedoms of Indonesians and Indo-Chinese.

We Asiastics, must show to the Imperialists that we are bound together in selfrespect, honour and fraternity and united in the fight against Imperialism for the freedom of our common country, Asia.

JINNAH'S SYMPATHY FOR INDONESIANS

BOMBAY, Nov. 12 (A.P.I.): A demand for the immediate removal of all Indian troops from Indonesia was made by Mr. M. A. Jinnah in an interview today.

"I strongly urge on the British Government that no further Indian troops should be used in Indonesia and that such troops as are employed should be recalled immediately. We have the fullest sympathy with the Indonesians in their struggle to achieve their freedom and to be free from the octopus of the imperialism of Holland.

'Disgrace To Suppress Indonesians'

Dutch Foreign Policy Should Be Changed, Says Sorensen

LONDON, Nov. 13 (Reuter): A resolution demanding immediate cessation of hostilities in Java and recognition of Doctor Soekarno's republic was passed at a crowded meeting of Indians, Chinese, Burmese, Indo-Chinese and Englishmen in London last night organised by the India League.

Mr. Palme Dutt, the Vice-Chairman of the British Communist Party who is well known in India, called for immediate negotiations between the British Government and the Indonesian Republican Government for a settlement on the basis of recognition of full national right to the independence of the Indonesian people.

Mr. Dutt said that the meeting marked the opening of a broad united campaign to end the war of intervention in Indonesia and declared: "The use of British and Indian troops in the interests of big Anglo-Dutch monopoly concerns to reimpose the manual slavery on the Indonesian people is indefensible.

Mr. Reginald Sorensen, Member of Parliament who presided, said that it was a disgrace for the British Government to suppress the Indonesian national struggle. Dutch foreign policy should be changed because of her United Nations membership.

BEGUM SHAH NAWAZ WANTS UNITY

Perturbed Over Events In Indonesia And Palestine

LAHORE, Nov. 12 (API): The Unionist Party, throughout its career, had followed a repressive policy towards women and had remained quite passive in raising the social, economic or political stature, stated Begum Shah Nawaz, addressing a rally of Muslim women held under the auspices of the Punjab Provincial Women Muslim League Committee. Lady Feroz Khan Noon, Baji Rashida, Begum Mumtaz Daultana, and a number of prominent women were present.

Begum Shah Nawaz described as anti-democratic the policy of the British Government in Indonesia and Palestine. She said: "There is a crucial juncture when all of us can unite and fight back the gripping danger of British imperialism. When Jews can be easily accommodated in Australia, Canada, and America why should Palestine be the particular target for making a national home for Jews."

Concluding she observed: "The Muslim League had been anxious to forge a compromise with the Congress, but if Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and Congress leaders refuse to open any negotiations with Muslim League, we also refuse to approach the Congress leaders."

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"We are very near to our goal and the next stage is the goal itself".

—Abul Kalam Azad.

The Bombay Chronicle

ELECTION PROPAGANDA

It is reported that all the 21 seats on the local district board of Cuttack have been captured by the Congress without a single contest and that, in consequence, no formal elections will be held. This is but one of many instances which demonstrate the wonderful hold Congress has obtained on the affections of the public. What is true of local board elections is equally true of elections for the legislature. Already a number of Congress candidates have been returned unopposed to the Central Assembly and several independent candidates and others representing other bodies have either withdrawn in favour of Congress or have agreed to make common cause with it, if elected. So a safe majority for Congress in the Assembly is certain. Congress majorities will be larger in the Provincial legislatures as the franchise for them is much wider. Yet no Congress Committee should be complacent or lax in its election campaign. Nor should it allow other issues to hamper election work. From this point of view one will welcome the decision to postpone the Congress Diamond Jubilee celebrations till after the elections. But many political events or grievances can be well utilised so as to help the election campaign, without prejudice to the other responsibilities of the Congress. The elections themselves are but a means to end our grievances, and the main object in contesting them is not merely to secure a majority for Congress but to consolidate the nation in support of the Congress; so that if another struggle is forced on the Congress, it should be ready, with the whole country behind it.

The elections are also an excellent occasion for the education of the voters on current political and other problems. If such occasions are few and far between, it only means that the best possible use must be made of them. It is very interesting to learn that a mass of literature, the greater volume of which will be intended to educate the Muslim masses, is under preparation at Lucknow in connection with the Congress election campaign to be started by the Election Board of the Provincial Congress Committee. It is said that the leaflets, pamphlets and posters to be issued may run into lakhs and that a 50,000 edition of a 32-page pamphlet by Maulana Husain Ahmed Madni is already ready as also a 50,000 edition of a pamphlet against Pakistan by Pandit Keshava Deva Malaviya, general secretary of the U.P. Provincial Congress Committee. We have no doubt similar propaganda is being planned in other provinces also.

An excellent election brochure has just been brought out by no less a person than Dr. B. Pattabhi Sitaramayya, a member of the Congress Working Committee. It is entitled "Why Vote Congress" and is published by Hind Kitabs, Bombay (pages 81; price as 12). It explains in a lucid but reasoned manner the Congress programme, as published so far or as may be gathered from various Congress resolutions. It gives the reader a clear idea as to what the Congress stands for and what it may be trusted to do if put in power. A full record of work already done by Congress Governments is to be found in one of the appendices, and the election manifesto issued by the A.I.C.C. a few weeks ago forms another appendix. The Congress case is presented in the form of questions and answers and should be most helpful to the English knowing voter. It is to be hoped that the booklet will also be made available in the principal Indian languages. It may be unnecessary now for Congress to go about begging for votes. But it is quite necessary to go about educating the voters. As an English politician put it, we have to educate our masters.

Not Surprising

We are not surprised at the reasons given by the British Minister of State for refusing, with the agreement of the Supreme Allied Commander, facilities to Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru to visit Indonesia. The British Government and Admiral Mountbatten must have foreseen a number of troubles and difficulties. Jawaharlal's visit would certainly have given extra and rather embarrassing publicity to what was happening in Indonesia. It would have also given some moral encouragement to the Indonesians since Jawaharlal's visit would have represented the solidarity of India with Indonesia. Finally, there was the danger of the visit causing unfavourable reactions among Indian troops who, apparently, constitute the great bulk of British troops in that country. We are, as we say, not surprised that the British authorities should have refused to allow Jawaharlal to go to Indonesia.

But this refusal constitutes a number of indirect admissions on the part of the British. The first is that India is wholeheartedly on the side of the Indonesians, who are fighting for their independence and that this country seriously objects to the use of Indian troops against Indonesians. All this has just received noteworthy support from the fact that Mr. M. A. Jinnah has, however belatedly, now persuaded himself to issue a plainly worded statement fully endorsing the Indonesian stand against Dutch imperialism and demanding the withdrawal of Indian troops from Indonesia. The British ought to respect this plain fact of the situation, namely, that every Indian supports Indonesia and, that, therefore, it is worse than unfair and improper to use the nationals of this country to fight the Indonesians. Another admission implicit in the British refusal is that the Indonesian "rising" is an entire people's "rising" who are backing their Republican regime to a man. If British "bona fides" are what they are claimed to be, then any attempt, direct or indirect, to restore Dutch imperialism must be ruled out of British political and military policy in Indonesia. We are glad that, presumably upon British persuasion, the Dutch Government have agreed to talk with Dr. Soekarno. But the British Government should go further and declare openly that in no case and in no way will they be a helping party to the return of the Dutch in any manner objectionable to the Indonesians.

Jawaharlal Nehru

To-day will be celebrated in the city and many other parts of the country as the 56th birthday of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. Literally millions will wish him long life and happiness and, particularly, success in his life-struggle for the Indian independence. Complete independence has been his dream for the last twenty-five years and he has dedicated every day of this period to the pursuit of that ideal. Whether as a free man—so far one can be free under the British yoke—or in prison—one forgets how many times he has been in it—he has ceaselessly worked for the ideal through the spoken or the written word. One said of him the other day that, if his tongue were made of stone, it would have been worn out or broken to pieces by now. But he never speaks in vain. What he speaks or writes rouses millions and frightens any number of British officials—and ministers. It was he more than any other individual who converted Congress and Gandhiji to the goal of complete independence. And it is he, more than any other individual, who is straining every muscle and nerve of his body to reach the goal. It should be no small satisfaction to him on his birthday to see that the goal is in sight, if not hastening towards India, and to find that millions of subject people outside India look up to him for inspiration and guidance in their own struggle for independence.

Frankly Speaking

Unwarranted Violence

The Lucknow Magistrate's order banning processions in celebration of the I.N.A. Day was unnecessary, foolish and provocative. There was no ghost of a chance of any unmolested procession creating any serious trouble. But the lathi charge by the mounted police on students, including girls, was more unnecessary, more foolish and more provocative, as was the lathi charge by the Lahore Police on student demonstrators at Lahore, in which, according to the Associated Press report, several students, among them some young girls below ten, were injured, and some of them were removed to their homes unconscious and in bleeding condition. And it has created no end of trouble for the authorities in Lucknow. If defiance had to be taken notice of, any official with a due sense of responsibility would have been content with the arrest of the leaders after the excitement of the day had passed. If the officials expected to crush the spirit of resistance they must have been disillusioned by now, neither for the first nor the last time. For a few students injured on the occasion, lakhs of them in the country will be more determined than ever to be self-assertive at any cost. The authorities showed they, more than the people, were desperate by molesting journalists who were only doing their legitimate work. And now we are sure pressmen all over the country will condemn the unwarranted violence of the police. And things will not stop there. It is too late to seek to crush the spirit of the people.

King Farouk's Demands

King Farouk's speech from the throne is remarkable for its Egyptian and Arab patriotism. It has caused "lively interest" in London, which is another way of saying that it has caused some annoyance and anxiety in British imperialist circles. And no wonder, because the King made demands that are so distasteful to London. For instance, he demanded that British troops quit Egypt. But what is wrong in it? The war is over and, unless, Egyptian Independence is to be treated as a travesty of the word Egypt should be entirely free of any foreign military occupation. This demand will have to be conceded, if not because democratic principles justify it, certainly because it expresses the will and determination of every single Egyptian and the British will defy it at the risk of serious trouble between Egypt and Britain. Nor do we see any incongruity in King Farouk claiming for Egypt Egyptian—miscalled Anglo-Egyptian—Sudan. Unlike Egypt Britain has no moral or political right to the Sudan.

Warning To Powers

But even more striking are the wider sentiments expressed by the Egyptian King on subjects concerning the Arab League and the future of Libya and Palestine. King Farouk's demand for a plebiscite in Libya will come as a disagreeable shock to the Big Powers who feel that it is their —democratic?—duty to arrogate to themselves the disposal of the destinies of Arab Libya in their own interests. Britain and America will also react similarly and for the same reasons to King Farouk's public denunciation of designs to Zionise Palestine. But this is a warning which the Great Powers had better heed. There is great significance in the awakening of an Arab political consciousness, represented, as King Farouk pointed out, in the Arab League "Referring to the Arab League Pact as inaugurating a new era of prosperity, grandeur and expansion in the history of Arab nations, King Farouk", Reuter reports, "said that events in the Levant States had proved that force was no argument". They are historic words of great import. The Arab world is awake, openly and publicly awake, and determined to win its rights in unity and solidarity.

CONFIDENCE IN HIS FOLLOWERS

Subhas Bose's Letter

NEW DELHI.

Extracts from the diary of Capt. P. K. Sahgal, reports of British prisoners captured by the I.N.A. were read in the course of the I.N.A. Officers' trial. The operational reports and a letter from Rangoon, March 12, 1945, from Sjt. Subhas Chandra Bose to Lt. Dhillon were filed as further exhibits by the Advocate General.

Expressing his complete confidence in Lt. Dhillon and in all those who stood by him in the crisis, Sjt. Subhas Chandra Bose said in the letter:

"Whatever happens to us individually, in the course of this heroic struggle, there is no power on earth, that can keep India enslaved any longer. Whether we live and work, or whether we die fighting, we must, under all circumstances, have complete confidence that the cause for which we are striving is bound to triumph.

"It is the finger of GOD that is pointing the way towards India's freedom. We have only to do our duty and to pay the price of India's liberty. Our hearts are with you and with all, who are with you in the present struggle, which is paving the way to our National Salvation.

"Please convey my warmest greetings to all the officers and men under you and accept same yourself. 'Jai Hind'—Subhas Chandra Bose."

Medal For Bravery

Another document announced that a medal to be named "Tumgnat Shatru Vinash" would be awarded to those who displayed conspicuous courage and qualities of individual initiative in killing or capturing British and American army personnel. The medal was also to be awarded "to any person outside India or inside who helped in the prosecution of India's war of liberation by killing or capturing alive any British or American other than army personnel who is clearly an enemy in the path of India's freedom."

Witness produced a document said to have been published on October 30, 1944 by Lt. Col. Aziz Ahmed Khan "under instructions from Captain Sehgal as Military Secretary". This announced the formation of a War Council of the Provisional Government to further intensify the war effort.

By an order of the day issued on March 13, 1945 Subhas Chandra Bose announced measures to "destroy completely the germs of cowardice and treachery" in the ranks of I.N.A. The order permitted unwilling members to leave the ranks of the I.N.A. This offer was open for one week, after which, the order said, cowards and traitors would be punished with death. After the purge had been carried out, every member of the I.N.A. was required to renew his oath to "fight on bravely and courageously until the emancipation of our dear motherland is achieved." The order continued "from now onwards and for all time every member of the Azad Hind Fauj should regard himself as the custodian of the honour and reputation of the Azad Hind Fauj and of the Indian nation."

Hindi Sahitya Parishad

My attention has been drawn to a Note appearing in the "Chronicle" about the said suppression of news in connection with Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru's message to the All-India Hindi Sahitya Sammelan, 33rd Session, held at Udaipur on the 17th, 18th and 19th October.

I am forwarding to you the true copy of the postcard received from Panditji's Secretary by our literary Secretary, Mr. D. S. Durgawat. The translation of the Hindi letter runs as follows:—

"Dear Durgawatji,

Jawaharlalji has got your letter dated the 5th October, 1945. In his opinion your decision to oppose the short-sighted policy regarding the National Language is appreciable; and he wishes success of your Session. Due to lack of time, he personally is unable to write anything. Excuse".

Sd/- Pitambar Pant.

This is a simple post-card written by Panditji's Secretary. It is needless to comment on it as it makes itself clear. We did not consider this card important hence did not release it to the Press.

Hoping your doubts, if any, will be removed now. Will you be kind enough to publish this in your valued paper? The central office of the All-India Hindi Sahitya Sammelan and ourselves will be obliged for this act of kindness.

Mr. Jinnah & Mr. Hooseinbhoy Laljee

I have read with not a bit of surprise Mr. Kanji Dwarkadas' version about the election that took place when Mr. Jinnah, Mr. Hooseinbhoy and Mr. Salehbhai were contesting for the Assembly seat. What he has said is quite incorrect. At that time Mr. Salehbhai was seeking re-election because he went into Assembly when Mr. Jinnah and Mr. Hooseinbhoy kept out. Further, before the said Assembly election took place there were held provincial elections and in that Mr. Hooseinbhoy stood and was declared elected from Bombay city. Not only that but Mr. Kanji Dwarkadas, who had got in from general constituency when popular people did not seek election, was also nowhere. Why after that Mr. Kanji became a regular Government nominee in the Corporation and we all know what he was doing. He knows very well how, inspite of Government members working against Mr. Hooseinbhoy, Mr. Hooseinbhoy secured double the votes of Mr. Salehbhai and another, and was elected the president or mayor of the city. It is since that time that Mr. Kanji and his friends have been all out against Mr. Hooseinbhoy and it is this bias which is the reason why Mr. Kanji has given a false version.

Now about what happened at the election I would like those who wish to know true facts to read accounts of it in newspapers of that date. However, I will give a short account as well. From morning to noon (lunch time) it was quite clear that Mr. Hooseinbhoy was at the top and it was at that time that the chief supporters, workers and some influential gentlemen from and on behalf of those in Mr. Jinnah's camp came over to Mr. Hooseinbhoy's camp with leading Muslims and leading Congressmen and made a request that as Mr. Hooseinbhoy was just declared elected from the city to the provincial assembly and as it was necessary to show that Mr. Salehbhai was not the representative of the Muslims and as Mr. Jinnah was a Nationalist and his success would prove that at both the elections Nationalists were elected and as the relations between Mr. Jinnah and Mr. Hooseinbhoy were always cordial and should remain so that an understanding between Mr. Jinnah and Mr. Hooseinbhoy should be brought about. During these discussions; Mr. Sheriff Dewji Canjee and all those who were present, went to the extent of asking the workers of both Mr. Jinnah and Mr. Hooseinbhoy not to take voters to polling for about half an hour, when ultimately those present, in view of the facts stated above, garlanded Mr. Hooseinbhoy and declared that the Nationalist Muslims were one and in view of that polling would be made in favour of Mr. Jinnah. In fact both the camps were made to work together and Mr. Hooseinbhoy was made to sit in Mr. Jinnah's camp with garlands all throughout. I do not wish to say how all people both in Mr. Jinnah's camp and those of Mr. Hooseinbhoy's camp expressed their appreciation of Mr. Hooseinbhoy's attitude. It was not till late in the evening that Mr. Salehbhai stopped, it was, never that either Mr. Jinnah's people or Mr. Salehbhai's people approached each other as Mr. Kanji has put. Mr. Salehbhai is in Bombay and can verify the fact.

Recently at a public meeting where Mr. Jinnah was present one of his supporters and an office-bearer of the Provincial Muslim League, who had been always waiting on late Mr. Sheriff Devjee Canjee declared that it was Mr. Sheriffbhoy and others who went after Mr. Hooseinbhoy and requested him to retire but now they were not going to do the same etc. Another high official of the Provincial Muslim League said that they would see that the election would be so carried out that Mr. Hooseinbhoy will not even be able to bring in sufficient people to vote to save his deposit. But it must be said to the credit of Mr. Jinnah if the reports are correct he did not say any such thing. Now, sir, in all fairness and not to do any injustice, I have to request you to publish fully this in your valuable paper so that truth and good feelings may prevail.

Housing Problem

So much has been said and written about the housing problem, but no concrete measures have so far been taken in this direction by the Municipality. It is not that the problem could not be tackled effectively if only the Municipality takes it seriously and goes about it the right way. It should be the first task of the Municipality to abolish the factories, workshops and refineries from the populated areas of the city where they are a great nuisance, and to achieve this it should stop issuing licenses to new factories and revoking those already granted to the old ones. These factories, workshops and refineries are an encroachment on civic rights, spread as they are all over the city and deprive as they do the poor houseless wanderers of the housing accommodation which it would otherwise provide. To cite an instance in points, recently a license was granted to a factory and it has been operating in one of the most populated parts of the city. The factory is established in the extensive compound of a bungalow and it is no exaggeration to say that about ten families could well be accommodated in its place. The removal of these factories, workshops and refineries to the suburban areas will be a way out of the present impasse.

Expanding World Trade On 'Multilateral' Basis

Wallace Wants U. S. To Assume Leadership: Financial Aid To Countries In Need Of It

NEW YORK, Nov. 12 (Reuter): Mr. Henry Wallace, the United States Secretary of Commerce urged here today that the United States assume an "aggressive leadership in pointing the way to expanding the world trade on a 'multilateral' basis", in an address on the United States' foreign trade policy before the National Trade Convention. He expressed the fear that world trade might be strangled by controls and controversy and said that the United States should aid the nations needing assistance in abandoning restrictive trade controls.

PEACE IN JEOPARDY

"We must give concrete evidence of our willingness to reduce our barriers to trade and thus promote our own best interest as well as that of other nations", he said. "Unless we are successful, we may find ourselves engaged in a costly trade war with the Russian Group, the Sterling Group and the Dollar Group divided against each other. Under such conditions world trade will shrink, general welfare will be adversely affected and peace of the world will still be jeopardised.

"Unless the present trends in the measures of foreign countries to control foreign trade are soon modified, world trade may be strangled by import permit systems, restrictive exchange controls, trade diverting preferences, discriminatory trading arrangements and increased import duties. In addition, there is likely to be an appreciable increase in practice by some countries of State trading or State-controlled trading.

CURB CARTELS

Mr. Wallace went on: "The United States long believed that private international cartels should not be permitted to engage in practices which restrict trade. The United States therefore, suggests that countries should take individual and co-operative action to curb the activities of private combinations which would prevent access on equal terms to markets and raw materials and would interfere with the efforts to increase production, trade levels of employment and income to accomplish this objective, a special international agency might be established to receive complaints concerning restrictive practices of international cartels, to obtain and examine relevant facts and advise member Governments regarding the remedies that may be required.

"An International Conference on Trade and Employment has been suggested by officials and businessmen on both sides of the Atlantic. Such a conference would have for its aims selective reduction of tariffs, ultimate elimination of preferences and other trade barriers and establishment of an International Trade Organisation.

"We must make available to those countries which need it, the financial strength necessary to permit them to enforce this scheme which is not only in our best interests but theirs also. It is for that reason that discussion with British officials regarding the extension of substantial credit are of such vital importance. If the United Kingdom is to abandon its system of exchange controls which channelise and restrict trade, if it is to reduce or eliminate tariff preferences within the British Empire, then it must have financial backing to make that possible.

BUSINESS PROPOSITION

But in considering the plight of the British we must not and we cannot forget our other Allies who fought no less gallantly and heroically at our side. On the basis of their contribution to the war and the need of their people we cannot neglect those Allies who require and seek our assistance.

"This assistance to the devastated countries of Europe and Asia, I submit to you as a business proposition. This aid is not a gift, it is credit which, I am convinced, can and will be repaid if we are successful in removing barriers to world trade, thus promoting its expansion. I submit to you that dollars invested now in rehabilitation will pay rich dividends in the form of market goods, contentment and peace.

"To-day we and the world must choose. But there is really no choice. This time it must be one world."

DON'T FALL VICTIMS TO LURE OF SPECTACULAR SACRIFICE

Jawahar's Advice To Students At Purse-Presentation Function

The gospel of work was preached by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru to an enthusiastic gathering of students at the Gowalia Tank Maidan on Tuesday evening. He warned them against falling victims to the lure of spectacular sacrifice and advised them to work quietly and without ostentation, to work steadily and perseveringly and to work hard.

THREE LAKHS PURSE.

The occasion was a public meeting held under the auspices of the All-India Students Congress and the Nehru Purse Committee, when a cheque for Rs. three lakhs were handed over to Panditji by Sir Homi Mody, one of the Vice-Presidents of the Committee.

Mr. Nagindas T. Master, who presided over the meeting, Mr. P. K. Kunte, Mr. R. K. Karanjia, editor of the 'Blitz' which had conducted the purse fund and Dr. Miss. Saptarshi who presented a purse to Pandit Nehru on behalf of the Maharani Jhansi Smarak Mandal, eulogised the services and qualities of Pandit Nehru.

While Panditji was being garlanded by numerous organisations, a member of the I.N.A. gave him the famous 'Jai Hind' salute and presented him with a flower spray.

NEHRU'S REPLY.

Pandit Nehru's speech in reply, took the form a series of catechisms addressed to the students. "If you want your words to be respected don't make them high-sounding" he counselled. "Do not indulge in adjectives and heap superlatives on individuals. Keep your eyes steadily on ideas, causes, ideals."

While thanking them for the purse they had given him for the Kamala Nehru Memorial Hospital he said his relationship with that institution was such that he felt reluctant to ask for funds for the same. Yet when it was given to him, he could not but thank them. The money value of the fund may not be much. A millionaire could have perhaps signed a cheque for the whole of it in a moment. But the real value of the purse collected in the manner of this one, was certainly greater.

Referring to the eulogistic remarks that had been made about him he chided them for such practice. He said that while it may be alright to praise a man like Gandhiji on occasions, to speak in a simlar strain about every minor personality was to display a lack of proper sense of proportion. As for the references to his birthday, he said, he liked them even less. The meeting had nothing to do with his birthday and if it had, he would not have attended it.

INPURSSIT OF FREEDOM.

Turning to the students he recalled how when he was a student like them, he saw the dream of freedom and had pursued it. A large part of his life had been spent in that pursuit. Sometimes freedom seemed within his grasp, but as often it had receded. In this connection he referred to the habit of people promising to sacrifice their very lives in the cause of freedom. He was not at all eager to die. He wanted to work, to do certain things, to achieve certain objectives. If in this endeavour death came to him he would face it cheerfully. But fighting and dying could not be ends in themselves. The real end for which they were working was to change the present evil order and establish a new and better one. That could only be done by quiet study and hard work. He asked them to study their past, the glorious cultural heritage of India which had spread from the Philippines to Sinkiang and Rome. He also asked them to ponder over the causes of the country's fall. At the same time they should reflect on the tremendous implications of the atomic age and shape their life and work in the light of these reflections.

KEEP A CHECK ON YOURSELF.

Mere enthusiasm was of no use. He remarked how an enthusiast might shout 'Jawaharlal-ki-Jai' and fetch a blow on a political opponent. He condemned all the petty violence recently in evidence and particularly the use of the name of the Congress in the pursuit of such activity. "With the approach of the elections, passions are rising. Keep a check on yourself. Hold yourself in control" he said.

He also condemned futile wranglings and the power politics so much in evidence among students. "Keep off airy theories" he warned. He advised them to take to constructive, matter of fact, action.

Citing the definition of a gentleman as one who gave more than what he received, he said that where society was dominated by individuals who received more than they gave, it was a sure sign of decadence.

A capitalist order was the classic instance of men who received everything and gave back nothing. He advised not to complain about how the world had dealt with them, but to wear themselves out in service.

India was not long going to be a slave. Political freedom was near at hand. It was their duty to strive and struggle for it as long as it remained unattained. But after freedom, there were even more tremendous asks to be performed. It was for these that the youth of to-day should prepare, if they were true to their professions of loyalty to a new and just social order.

Bharata Mani Annual

This high class Tamil Monthly edited by Mr. K. S. Venkatramani, the well-known litterateur and social worker of Madras, is celebrating the seventh birthday by the issue of this annual number. The first few years of journals form a period of high infant mortality and we are glad that the Bharata Mani has not only scored through these fateful years, but has also unearthed hidden literary talents to contribute their best to the renaissance in Tamil Nad. One of the biggest achievements of Bharata Mani as is evident from this Number is the number of women writers it has been able to draw. "Mahamayi" by Smti Rajalakshmi is like George Eliot's an endeavour to unravel the beauty and nobility in the life of the common man and woman, while the 'drama of life' by Smti K. N. Lalita is a penpicture of the bourgeoise life which is a by product of the Cauvery Valley civilisation. Arresting among the contributions centre round the life of the two famous Tamil composers Nilakanta Sivam and Bharati. The articles are of a high order both in swelling periods and choice diction. It typifies Tamil at its best and it is Tamil without tears.

WITHOUT COMMENT—

LONDON, Nov. 12 (Reuter): Refusal to afford facilities for Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru to visit Indonesia was taken with the agreement of the Supreme Allied Commander "in view of the present disturbed conditions in Java which render it undesirable for such a visit to be made", declared Mr. Arthur Henderson, Under-Secretary for India, in reply to a question by the Labour Member, Mr. Reginald Sorensen, in the Commons to-day.

A newspaper report about Sir Maurice Hallet having threatened to resign if he was not allowed to arrest Jawaharlal has been described in a Viceroy's House Press Note as "a fabrication and entirely without foundation".

All right. Let's have the real facts.

"The Muslim League had been anxious (sic) to forge a compromise (sic) with the Congress, but if Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and the Congress leaders refuse to open negotiations with the Muslim League, we (sic) also refuse to approach Congress leaders".

—Begam Shah Nawaz.

When did Madame honour the Congress leaders with an approach?

The Unionist Party said the ex-Unionist Begam Shah Nawaz, throughout its career (si, sic, sic) had followed a repressive policy towards women.....

The good lady was obviously forgetting herself.

By the way, some Punjab Muslim Leaguers have recently demanded that no tickets be given to non-purdah Muslim ladies. These Leaguers must, we are now certain, be the Unionist Party.

The British Minister of State, Mr. Noel Baker, pleaded with the Commons that it was very important that the differences between the British and Soviet Governments should not be exaggerated.

Is it possible to exaggerate them?

A British M. P. presiding over a pro-Indonesian meeting in London demanded that Dutch foreign policy should be changed because of her United Nations membership.

That should be the reason why it shouldn't change.

King Farouk of Egypt seems to have made three sensational demands and all, of course, ridiculous, even dangerous.

(1) If "foreign armies" are withdrawn from Egypt, how can Egypt defend herself against—well does it matter who and when?

(2) And how can Egypt be allowed to demand Sudan, a country that doesn't belong to her, from Britain, a country to which—well, you grasp the main point, don't you? It would be such an outrage on democracy and the rights of nations, and

(3) Plebiscite in Libya? Good heavens, does the Egyptian King want to afflict all the Big Three Foreign Ministers with joint and several fits of apoplexy?

No, no, no. This is extremely unfair to those reporters who desire no more than opportunities for their imagination.

FREEDOM IS UNDISPUTED BIRTHRIGHT OF EVERY INDIAN, SAYS RAJEN BABU

PATNA, Nov. 12. (A.P.I.): "Freedom is an undisputed birthright of every Indian and any effort to achieve it cannot be treasonable", observed Dr. Rajendra Prasad addressing a meeting of local students held under the auspices of the Bihar Students Federation to celebrate the Indian National Army Day.

Explaining the policy of the Congress, Dr. Prasad said: "Congress believes in non-violence but at the same time, it admits that there are also other ways to achieve freedom. Congress cannot treat any Indian as traitor or wrongdoer for his adopting a course which is different from that of the Congress for the achievement of independence".

"PATRIOTS, OUT & OUT"

"The personnel of the Indian National Army", Dr. Prasad added, "are patriots out and out. They were actuated by the spirit of freedom which was praiseworthy and 'Azad Hind Fouz' was for liberating Mother India from foreign yoke. We of the Congress acclaim and applaud their passion for India's independence".

Dr. Prasad said: "Amongst ourselves there are divergent views but it fills my heart with appreciation towards the fine personnel and cadets of the 'Azad Hind Fouz'. Though they were belonging to different communities they were actuated by only one laudable purpose—liberation of India. Hindus, Sikhs and Muslims joined hands and formed the National Army. They launched fight for freedom knowing fully well that they shall have to trudge a long and very thorny path. But they were completely united for one supreme purpose and there was no place for communalism or provincialism in their ranks".

Concluding Dr. Rajendra Prasad observed: "Britishers must now release Indians whether Congressmen or non-Congressmen, Muslim Leaguers or Sikhs and those others holding allegiance to other political parties and clamouring for 'Swaraj'. It is my sincerest advice that you must have unflinching determination for the achievement of freedom".

Referring to the Indonesian Freedom movement, he deprecated the action of the British in trying to put the brave Indonesians under the Dutch Government.

Mr. Bishambharnath Pandey, President of the City Congress Committee, speaking next regretted that in spite of the unanimous demand for the immediate release of the I.N.A. men, the British Government was putting them up for trial.

Nehru's Appeal For I. N. A. Funds

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru has made an appeal for the I.N.A. Defence Fund. He states:—

"The Congress started the I.N.A. Defence Committee purely for defence purposes of those who are going to be tried. Subsequently, so many other matters came up before it that it decided to form two other committees—the Inquiry Committee and the Relief Committee, and the I.N.A. Funds Committee. The last two committees have not been fully formed yet, although they have started functioning already. At the same time, in some other places, relief funds have been started, notably by the Mayor of Bombay. While it is right that such local efforts should be encouraged, it would be unfortunate if there were too many local funds for this purpose. This would not only be confusing, but might lead to irresponsible persons collecting money.

"I therefore suggest that where there are responsible local funds, they should be supported. Otherwise, donations should be sent to the Central Fund at Delhi, of which Mr. Raghunandan Saran is the treasurer. There should be and will be full co-operation between these various agencies."

STUDENTS' RALLY CONDEMNS LATHI CHARGE

"No Amount Of Repression Won't Break Movement For Release Of I. N. A. Personnel"

LAHORE, November 13. (A.P.I.): A resolution strongly condemning the Provincial Government and the police for yesterday's lathicharge in Lahore on students, including little girls of ten, was adopted at a mass rally of students in Goal Bagh today.

Thousands of girls and boys who stayed out from their colleges and schools today as well, attended the rally which was frequently punctuated by I.N.A. 'and Jai-Hind slogans. Many of them were wearing the I.N.A. badge and the Tri-colour arm-band.

REPRESSION WON'T DO IT

The mass meeting declared that no amount of repression would be able to break the students I.N.A. movement which, the resolution stated, would go on until the last man and officer of the Indian National Army was released.

The resolution described yesterday's lathi charge on the peaceful demonstration of boys and girls as utterly unwarranted and congratulated those students who were beaten and arrested by the police.

Mr. Das, the student leader, narrating yesterday's happening in Lahore said that students as a disciplined and peaceful body were prepared for even greated repression by the Government and police. He advised students to remain peaceful and non-violent and continue their struggle undaunted.

Sardar Iqbal Singh, President of the Punjab Students' Congress opening the rally said that the time had gone when students could be brought into submission by lathis and bullets.

Authors Are Poorly Paid In India

E. M. Forster Suggests Creation Of Writers Society

CALCUTTA, Nov. 12. (A.PI.): The creation of an All India Authors Society, and an All India Publishers Association was among the ideas put forward by Mr. E. M. Forster, the British novelist, in a broadcast talk from the Calcutta station of the All India Radio tonight when he spoke on "Does writing pay?"

Narrating the experiences of some Indian authors whom Mr. Forster heard at the Indian P. E. N. Conference at Jaipur last month, he said: "I came away from Jaipur with the impression that authors are usually underpaid in India, and sometimes not paid at all, and the impression has been strengthened since."

To protect authors from exploitation, Mr. Forster said that an All India Authors Society could be created to which writers should subscribe, whatever their political and communal affiliations.

"I think the, Societies would have to be an All India one. Sectional societies representing various communities, would not be equally effective. The dominating idea would have to be that of law, and the protection of all writers against economic injustice," he added.

With reference to the idea of an All India Publishers Association, Mr. Forster said that such an Association and an All India Authors Society are as it were, opposite numbers, and where they both existed, conditions in the book world tended to improve.

TRIAL OF STRENGTH AT POLLS

eliminate itself, and leave the parties themselves to settle the question.

Taking the major groups in India, Muslims and Hindus, into consideration, it was not possible for any of them to crush the other. Further, there might be a compulsion of events which might bring them to an agreement, without reference to a third party.

Pandit Nehru said that his speeches would have served a good purpose if they led people to think that the Indian problem could not be completely static and that his speeches had a revolutionary implication.

INDIAN CONTROL AND FOREIGN CAPITAL

Discussing the proposition said to have been put forward by certain industrialists that the allocation of 49 per cent of foreign capital in Indian industries would not be inimical to the best interests of the country, Pandit Nehru said that there was general agreement that foreign economic control had to be kept out and that such control should entirely lie in Indian hands. Secondly, if foreign capital brought in foreign interference, it had to be jealously watched. Thirdly, if it was necessary to have foreign capital, it could be accepted on the strict understanding of complete Indian control, after coming to an agreement with regard to profits and dividends.

Pandit Nehru expressed himself strongly against the use of Indian troops as a part and parcel of the army of occupation in colonial countries. On many occasions protests had been made against this, he said.

But in the occupation of Japan, the position was different, inasmuch as Japan was not a colonial territory, and here certain token armies had been sent. But in no case would he agree to the sending of even token armies for humiliating any country.

ADVICE TO INDIAN OFFICERS

Pandit Nehru added: "We should like the officers of the Indian army to develop national sentiments and to come more in touch with the people, even under the present conditions, when they are part and parcel of the British Army.

ATOM BOMB.

About the atom bomb, Pandit Nehru said, "The menace of the atom bomb cannot be checked effectively unless the fundamental causes which create friction, between nations are removed. And so long as there are the causes, there will be friction and war, and so long as there is war, there will be use for the atom bomb. Therefore, the question really is one of removing friction, politically, economically and socially. At present we have imperialist control of various countries—financial imperialism as well as racial inequalities. All these must go and some kind of an effective world order must be set up to check the use of the atom bomb."

He added, "So far we have been thinking of the atom bomb as a destructive agency. But now something bigger has happened—that the release of enormous force which can be used both for good and for evil. Probably in another 10 or 15 years' time, practical applications of atomic energy will be made. That means a very great revolution which might upset all our economic structure and theories. That revolution can either destroy human civilisation or take it up to unheard of levels."

CASE OF INDONESIA.

Asked whether there could not be any concrete form of sympathy for the Indonesian freedom movement by way of a token general strike for a day, Pandit Nehru said that it was a good suggestion. He pointed out that there was general agreement among all classes of people in India to stop the flow of war material to suppress the Indonesian movement.

Regarding the situation in China, Pandit Nehru said that it was distressing to see that there was a civil war in that country, and as for his advice, he said that effective steps should be taken to end it. "But it is talking in the air, of course," he added.

Pandit Nehru said that although he was not going to Indonesia, he was making an effort to go to Burma and Malaya.

INVASION OF SINGAPORE

City Growing Restive Under Continued Influx Of General Staffs

SINGAPORE, Nov. 13. (Reuter): Singapore is growing restive under the continued influx of General Staffs who now number several thousands, cables "Reuter's" special correspondent.

The military and officials have occupied Singapore's 500 best residential houses, almost all warehouses and a large part of office accommodation, flats and hotels. Admiral Mountbatten's Staff, which is expected to arrive before December, will number about 480 Officers and 1,000 other ranks, who will be accommodated almost entirely in private houses, as local barracks are fully occupied by the Headquarters of Allied land forces, South-East Asia about 3,650 and S.E.A. Air Command about 1,800 strong.

Officials say that the position will become acute early next year when staffs of commercial firms are expected to return in large numbers.

The "Straits Times" said in an editorial to-day that at present New Delhi resembled a peaceful English village compared with Singapore island. The paper also objected to the reported intention of the Far Eastern Bureau of the British Ministry of Information to come to Singapore. "One of the purposes of this organisation is to spread propaganda of a political character and such activities often give rise to acrimonious controversy", it said.

"People who may be annoyed by these broadcasts will not be likely to recognise the fact that responsibility for them lies with a branch of the Ministry of Information. They will place the blame on the authorities in the centre from which the broadcast is made.

spared of destruction of your great cities. You have not had in America the spectacle of hundreds of thousands of broken homes. You have not had great masses of people driven from their habitation wandering about seeking somewhere to lay their heads. You have not had the work of centuries of human endeavour destroyed in a few short hours by attacks from the air. But I know you are fully conscious of the tragic folly of war."

PARTY TRADITIONS

"We in the Labour Party declare that we are in line with those who fought the Magna Charta and Habeas Corpus, with the Pilgrim Fathers and with the signatories of the Declaration of Independence". Pointing out that he never lacked candid critics inside his own ranks, Mr. Attlee declared:

"We believe in the freedom of the individual to live his own life, but that freedom is conditioned by his not cramping and restricting the freedom of his fellowmen. There is, and always will be, scope for enterprise, but when big business gets too powerful it becomes monopolistic and we hold it unsafe to leave it in private hands. Further in the world of to-day, we believe, as do most people in Britain, that one must plan the economic activities of the country if we are to assure the common man a fair deal."

LEAF FROM HIT LIFE

Mr. Attlee cited his own career to illustrate that the Labour Party was not exclusively working-class, but was drawn from all sections of society. "Forty years ago as a young man studying Law just down from Oxford, I visited for the first time my constituency Limehouse—a very poor district in East London. I learned from it first-hand facts of poverty in our great cities. I became convinced that we must build our society on a juster foundation. The result was I joined the Socialist movement and eventually after many years' striving I find myself the Prime Minister of Britain."

Mr. Attlee then sketched the broad outlines of his Government's attitude to foreign affairs. "We believe that we cannot make a heaven in our own country and leave a hell outside", he said.

"We believe this not only from the moral basis of our movement which is based on the brotherhood of man without distinction, race or creed, but also from an entirely practical standpoint. We seek to raise the standard of life of our people. We can do so only by trading with the rest of the world and as good traders we wish to have prosperous customers."

The students are alleged to have thrown stones at the police hitting a number of policemen. Some of the policemen retaliated with lathis and dispersed the demonstrators.

Later the demonstrators marched in procession which terminated at Tilak Hall.

GURKHA LEAGUE PROGRAMME FOR I.N.A. DAY

KALIMPONG, Nov. 12 (A. P. I.): "I.N.A." Day will be observed by the All-India Gurkha League on November 18.

Mass meetings should be held in the evening when resolutions demanding release of the I.N.A. men should be adopted.

Flags will be sold on I.N.A. Day, adds the Secretary, and the sale proceeds will be sent to the I.N.A. Relief Committee.

DEMAND FOR INQUIRY INTO POLICE FIRING

MADURA, Nov. 13. (A.P.I.): The Working Committee of the Madura branch of the Indian Students Congress today adopted resolutions condemning the recent police firing in Madura and demanding a public enquiry into the conduct of the police.

The Committee also protested against the trial of I.N.A. men and against the execution of Mahendra Gope.

Students Observe I. N. A. Day

MADRAS, Nov. 13. (A.P.I.): Students of most of the educational institutions in the city observed I.N.A. Day yesterday by abstaining from their classes.

They held meetings and passed resolutions demanding the unconditional release of the members of I.N.A.

The students of the Madras Medical College held a meeting in the college compound and passed resolutions urging the immediate release of I.N.A. men and condemning the action of the Allies "in suppressing the freedom movements in Asia in general and Indonesia in particular", urging the withdrawal of Indian troops from Indonesia and criticising the police firing in Madura.

BANK EMPLOYEE'S APPEAL DISMISSED

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Kania and Mr. Justice Chagla.)

Shavakshaw R. Mistry ..Appellant (Original Plaintiff).

Versus.

The Reserve Bank of India ..... Respondents (Original Defendants)

The appellant was a second grade clerk in the Imperial Bank of India. In 1935 when the Reserve Bank of India was established his services were transferred to the Reserve Bank on the permanent staff but he was given the option of selecting whether he desired to be governed thereafter by the terms of service of the Imperial Bank or of the Reserve Bank. He exercised the option and having chosen to be governed by the former he was taken into the Reserve Bank on being guaranteed his previous terms of service with the Imperial Bank. In December 1935 it was resolved by the Central Board of the Reserve Bank that Part II of the Discipline of the Reserve Bank Staff Regulations (which included Rule 22) should apply to all staff permanently transferred to the Reserve Bank. The appellant was aware of this resolution.

Some complaint having been made against him, the appellant was degraded in 1937. On 12th December 1940 the appellant was informed that his services had been terminated as from that date. He was given the pay due to him and one month's salary in lieu of notice.

The appellant contended that he was governed by the Reserve Bank Staff Regulations and that under Rule 22 thereof he could not be dismissed without an inquiry. He had therefore filed this suit claiming damages for wrongful dismissal.

The trial judge had held that 'termination of service as opposed to dismissal was governed not by the Reserve Bank Staff Regulations but by the Imperial Bank Rules of Service under which his services had been properly terminated. He had therefore dismissed the suit. The plaintiff appealed.

Their Lordships held that the appellant had not shown that he had been employed for a particular time and on that ground alone the appeal failed. Their Lordships agreed with the trial judge that Rule 22 of the Reserve Bank Staff Regulations which related to dismissal was not applicable and that the appellant's service was properly terminated under the Imperial Bank Rules by which he was governed. The appeal was therefore dismissed with costs.

Mr. F. J. Coltman and Mr. P. P. Khambatta instructed by Messrs. Mehervald and Co., appeared for the appellant.

Sir Jamshedji Kanga and Mr. H. M. Seervai instructed by Messrs. Crawford Bayley and Co., appeared for the respondents.

IRAN'S CHARGE-SHEET AGAINST SOVIET

Encroachment On Internal Sovereignty

SAADABAD PACT POWERS TO CONFER IN BAGHDAD

BAGHDAD, Nov. 13. (Reuter): The Foreign Ministers of Turkey, Iraq, Persia and Afghanistan are to confer here, according to reports published in the Arabic press. The meeting will be held according to the Saadabad Pact and proper steps will be taken to adjust the Pact in the light of the present conditions.

TEHERAN, Nov. 13. (Reuter): Strong criticism of alleged Soviet Russian interference in "the political independence" in Persian Azerbaijan is voiced by the Teheran newspaper "Kanun".

Charge-Sheet Against Soviet

The paper writes: "Ever since the entry of the Red Army into Persia, Soviet authorities, in the north have, in defiance of the Tripartite Pact, molested Persian security authorities and prevented the Persian Government from stationing security forces in accordance with the needs of the internal situation.

"Again, all Persian officials in Azerzaijan, who conscientiously tried to do patriotic duty and refused to allow the affairs of the province to be administered by a group of Caucasian refugees, Assyrians and Americans, openly supported and encouraged by Soviet civil and military authorities, either found life impossible and considered it necessary to leave Azerbaijan, or, after enduring every sort of humiliation, were forced to leave on direct orders from the Soviets.

PATRIOTS TURNED OUT

In Azerbaijan, Mazanderan, and Khorazan anyone who ventured to express patriotic opinions was either turned out directly by Soviet authorities or by treacherous Persian officials acting under Soviet pressure.

In Mesheh only the Tudeh Party, whose connection with the Soviets is now common knowledge, is allowed to exist; members of Enadhemelli Party, who some time ago attempted to form a branch there, were immediately deported on instructions from Soviet authorities.

Part of Kurdistan is occupied by Soviet troops and the Persian Government has so far been unsuccessful in obtaining permission from Soviet authorities to send their security forces to that area to prevent activities of quislings.

PRECEPT AND PRACTICE

These incidents appear to violate the political independence of Persia as well as her sovereignty. Yet the Soviet Union has guaranteed Persia's political independence in the Tripartite Pact. Here we ask what the Soviets mean by 'Political Independence'.

The Democrat Party of Azerbaijan which, as every one knows, is the former Tudeh Party reappearing under another name and which openly demands separation of Azerbaijan from Persia, is openly supported by Soviet authorities. What is the support of the separatists movements but infringement of Persian territorial integrity?

The cases mentioned above represent only a fraction of the cases in which Soviet authorities have intervened directly and indirectly in our internal affairs, and we have only mentioned cases which the Soviet authorities have tacitly admitted.

SOVIET PRETEXTS

"But what pretexts do the Soviet authorities advance for their interference in our internal affairs? They accuse the Persian Government of being Fascist and reactionary. On the grounds that it closed the Tudeh Club and Workers Union; it has suppressed Tudeh paper it has prevented Riza Rusta and Abbas Shahandeh from going to the Trades Union Congress in Paris. We cannot believe that the Soviet Government realises that the Tudeh Party in Persia is a subversive organisation founded to preserve the interests of foreigners in Persia and whose principal aim is to subvert public order and overthrow the legally established Persian Government".

O'CONNELL'S BRILLIANT PIANOFORTE RECITAL

The highlight of this month's music concerts was Raymond O'Connell's pianoforte recital at the C. J. Hall on Tuesday evening The concert was in aid of the Thanksgiving Fund and H. E. and Lady Colville were present. This young artist has proved his merit before very critical and appreciative Bombay audiences already, and his recital again showed his brilliance as a pianist.

Bach's "French Suite No. 5" because of its simplicity of theme and design, showed his quiet unostentatious technique at its best; he succeeded in investing the composition with character through his interpretation. Liszt's "Sonata in B Minor" is very conducive to flourishes of style and exhibitionism which can be noticed even in experienced pianists who spoil their performance by inclining towards the loud side; O'Connell was here at his very best maintaining correct tempo in the syncopated passages, showing judicious use of the pedal, good left-hand work on the base, and correct rendering with feeling of the passages in lower key.

Schumann's "Phantasiestucke" containing beautiful variegated sketches required a versatile interpretation, and O'Connell was right up to the mark. The general complaint against Chopin's works that they leave the listener cold even though he appreciates the wonderful brilliance of the composer, is disproved when his works are rendered, as they were in this case, appropriately maintaining a balance between display and feeling. Debussy's "L'isle Joyense" brought a successful recital to an excellent close. The Ladies' Committee with their organiser Mrs. Vakil should be congratulated on arranging this enjoyable concert.

FIRST TEST ENDS IN DRAW

Amir Elahi And Gul Mohammad Save Indian Side

Australian Services XI	(First Innings)	531
Australian Services XI	(Second Innings) for 1 wicket	31
Indian XI	(First Innings)	339
Indian XI	(Second Innings)	304

BOMBAY, Tuesday.

Those enthusiasts of Indian cricket who expected the Indian team to register an easy victory over the visitors in the first of the unofficial tests were rudely disappointed in their expectations. Not only had the Indians to fight all the way, but match ending as it did in a draw, required the last ounce of resource and skill on the part of the Indians from being utterly lost.

The Home Team followed on with a deficit of 192 runs and when they were only 8 runs ahead they had already lost six of their batsmen. When Nayudu was dismissed with only 10 minutes to go for the tea interval the score board showed 239 for 8. The prospects of a drawn game were meagre indeed. But then Amir Elahi and Gul Mohammad pulled the match literally out of the fire adding 51 runs for the 9th wicket and by the time the Indians were dismissed for a second time they had left the visitors with only 22 minutes in which to get 113 for victory.

That they intended to get them was indicated by Hassett who came out to open with their most prolific hitter Miller. Merchant forestalled their attempts and placed seven of his fielders on the boundary line from the very beginning. Amarnath was bowling just wide enough on the leg side to prevent the batsmen from connecting squarely. Hazare from the other end was also pegging even away without any slip except in his first over. Hassett paid the penalty of forcing the pace. He played on to the Baroda all-rounder when his score was 11 and his side's score was only 24. Pepper was the next man in, but soon realised that the time was not enough and resorted to playing out time.

Now that Bombay has seen the last of the visitors, it would not be too early to reflect on the Indian disaster. It was largely the result of our slackness in the field, the slackness that missed almost a dozen chances. Had all the chances been accepted the Australians would have been dismissed for a comparatively small total. In this the most vital department of the game, fielding, we should do well to take a leaf out of the visitor's book. Their fielding throughout was 'par excellence'. The two brilliant catches that accounted for Vinoo Mankad and Amarnath in the second innings and that piece of fielding which ran Nayudu out will take a long time to forget. The visitors gave nothing away in the field. There was no stroke that they did not attempt to chase to the boundary, no possibility of a catch which they did not try to convert into a wicket. Their fielders unlike ours deserve undying thanks of their bowlers.

DETAILS OF TUESDAY'S PLAY

A very small crowd of less than 5,000 greeted Vinoo and Merchant as they stepped out to resume the Indians' second innings.

Pepper sent down the first over, two runs being scored one by each batsman. Williams bowling from the Pavilian-end sent down two maiden overs to Merchant. Miller took over from Pepper after he had bowled but one over, and sent down a maiden to Vinoo.

In Miller's second over today Vinoo cut the ball towards third man for a brace and hoisted the first ten of the innings. He placed the next ball towards cover and entered double figures.

When the score was 15 Pepper relieved Miller and Merchant square-cut his first delivery to the ropes. In his next over Merchant late-cut Pepper to the ropes, and hoisted the first thirty of the innings on board.

The left-hander Ellis relieved Williams, and Vinoo hooked his first delivery for three. Both batsmen refused to take risks and the rate of scoring was slow. Vinoo sent the first 50 of the innings on the board by placing Pepper to cover for a single.

When the score was 60 Price relieved Pepper from the Churchgate-end and bowled a maiden over.

VINOO DISMISSED

From the other end Ellis struck the first blow for the visitors. Vinoo attempted to drive an overpitched ball mistimed and Roper fielding for Whittington in gully brought off a brilliant high one-handed catch. (60-1-27)

Amarnath started by straight driving Ellis to the ropes. In his next over Amarnath drove a full toss from Ellis to the sight screen, the ball travelling through the stumps at the other end. Two overs later he off drove another full toss for a four to enter his 20s.

Merchant placed Price to square leg for a single and entered his 40s.

FIRST CENTURY

When the total was one short of three figures Hassett brought on Pettiford from the Pavil'on-end, relieving Ellis and a crowd of 15,000 watched Merchant signalling the first century of the innings by placing the new comer for a single.

Amarnath entered his 30s by square-cutting Price to the boundary. Pepper relieved Price when the score was 110. Amarnath square cut Pettiford to the ropes. in his second over. Merchant reached his 50 by placing Pepper to cover for a single. In the same over Amarnath entered his forty by placing Pepper to long on for two.

With the score at 121 Hassett took the ball from the Pavilion-end relieving Pettiford.

When lunch was taken the score was 129 for 1 wicket Amarnath and Merchant batting with 41 and 57 respectively.

PLAY AFTER LUNCH

Pettiford and Pepper were in charge of the attack when play was resumed Merchant edged Pepper to the fine-leg boundary and entered his 60. Merchant was playing with the utmost caution and obtained his runs mostly through placement. Amarnath reached his 50 by placing Pettiford towards square leg for two. But in the same over he hooked Pettiford and was very brilliantly held by Roper at short squar eleg (150-2-50).

Without any addition to the score Merchant was sent back l.b.w. to Pepper. (150-3-69).

Modi opened his account by pulling Pepper for a single. In the same ove. Hazare pushed Pepper towards mid on for two.

Hazare later drove Pettiford to the extra cover boundary and Modi pulled the same bowler in the same over for another four. In the next over Modi pulled a full toss from Pettiford for two and entered his double figures.

BOWLING CHANGE

When the score was 172 Miller took over from Pepper from the Pavilion-end and started with a maiden over. From the other end Ellis took over from Pettiford and Hazare promptly despatched his first delivery to the ropes.

After he had bowled two overs he gave way to Price. Modi entered his 20s by on driving a full toss from Ellis to the boundary and Hazare emulated his partner by placing Ellis to extra cover for a single at the same time wiping out the deficit of 192 runs.

ROT SETS IN

One run late Pepper took over from Ellis from the Pavilion-end.

When the score was one short of 200 Pepper uprooted Hazare's middle stump with a googly. (199-4-23).

Modi followed Hazare to the Pavilion. He stepped out to Price missed and was stumped by Sismey without any addition to the score. (199-5-26).

Kisenchand hooked a full toss for a single and hoisted the elusive 200 on board. Kisenchand joined the procession when he was bowled by Pepper off his pads. (200-6-1). This brought on Abdul Hafeez and Gul Mohamed together.

Gul Mohamed collected 10 runs in an over from Pepper including two fours.

The Baroda left-hander was positively aggressive and went in for the bowling. He drove Price to the extra cover boundary later and put 220 on board by repeating the stroke to obtain a single.

When the score was 226 Miller took over from Price. From the other end Williams took the new ball at 228 and Gul Mohamed edged the first delivery towards square leg for two. Miller from the other end took the seventh wicket for the Visitors. Abdul Hafeez playing on when he was only one short of his double figures. (230-7-9).

Nayudu the new-comer drove Williams to the off boundary. But it in an attempt to repeat the stroke edged the ball and Hassett brought off a low catch in the gully. (239-8-8). Elahi the next man drove the first ball received to the extra cover boundary. Gul Mohamed who was 20 hooked Miller for a four. Elahi sent the 250 on the board by placing Miller to square leg for a two.

Pepper relieved Williams when the score was 251 and Elahi played out a maiden over.

Tea was taken at this stage.

AFTER TEA

Williams and Pettiford were in charge of the attack when play was resumed after tea. Williams sent down a maiden over and Elahi collected two runs in Pepper's first over. Price took over from Williams and Elahi entered his double figures by lifting the new-comer to the off boundary He lifted the next delivery to the sight screen for another four and drove the last delivery to the on boundary.

Inspired by his partner Gul Mohamed square cut Pepper's first delivery to the ropes and hoisted 270 on board entering his 30s at the same time Elahi in a merry mood square cu Price for three and his partner placed a ball between mid on and square leg to put 280 on board. Elahi hooked Pepper for a four and lifted the next delivery to the off boundary to enter his 30s.

Elahi's merry innings terminated when he was bowled by Price in t next over. (290-9-32).

Srinivasan the last man hooked Price to the ropes off the second ball he received. Gul Mohamed who was 40 hooked Price in his next over t the ropes and hoisted the third century of the innings on board.

When he was only two runs short of his 50, Gul Mohamed was caught and bowled by Price. (304-10-48).

AUSTRALIANS BAT

Hassett and Miller came out to open the Australians' second innings. It was evident that the visitors intended to gather as many of the 113 runs as they could. Merchant set his fielders on the boundary line, in an attempt to save runs. The batsmen had a go at the bowling and collected as many as 24 runs in 19 balls. Hassett played on to Hazare when the score was 24, the Australian Captain having contributed 11 of them. Pepper came in but it was evident that the Visitors could not obtain the runs and the match ended in a draw.

2 GOOD NEWS

TO THE DOCTORS AND PATIENTS SUFFERING FROM THE TWO DISEASES

1. LEUCODERMA

It should be clearly understood that the white patches on the skin have no connection at all with leprosy; it is quite misleading and wrong to give the name of 'White Leprosy' to 'Leucoderma'. It is not caused by any particular article of diet. Bad and deficient food, poor in vitamins causes weakness in nerves and loss of pigment in human body when white patches appear on the skin. It has been researched out that 'Seratula Anthelmintica' is very helpful for the growth of healthy skin with natural colour. By chemical addition of some other drugs, having a great curative value for this disease, to it, the liquid specific has been made a successful remedy for Leucoderma. It is quite free from Arsenic, Bauchi and any other poisonous drugs and may be freely applied on all parts of the body irrespective of age. To get speedy and perfect cure, patients are advised to take internally "Sebula Comp" tablets an oral preparation of the same drugs.

Administrations: Apply a few drops of liquid Pigmeto on the white spots and gently rub into the skin till dry; this should be done twice a day. 'Sebula Comp' to be taken, two tablets, twice a day with tepid water. The skin should be washed with Chaulmoogra Soap at least every alternate day. This will keep the pores clean and aid the curative process. Patients should have easy evacuation of the bowels every day. The disease aggravates when the patients are constipated. Always take nutricious food. Continue the administration of these two external and internal specifics for a reasonable time and amazingly watch the result.

2. HYDROCELE

It is a general conception that HYDROCELE is incurable without operation. But, by modern research, complete recovery has now been made possible by the oral preparation without the help of any surgical treatment. The medicine is absolutely free from poisonous drugs.

Administrations: 1-2 tablets a day with tepid water preferably in the evening. Three courses may be required for the cure, if the disease is in its early stage. Otherwise six courses may be administered.

Bombay, Nov. 13

The Share Bazar was quietly steady with a moderate business passing but the undertone was good. Tata Steel Defds opened at Rs. 2395 and declined to Rs. 2385 under scattered selling but again improved to Rs. 2391. Ordinary shares opened at Rs. 439 and were done at Rs. 437. Bombay Dyeing shares opened at Rs. 2025 and declined to Rs. 2015. Kohinoor Mill shares opened at Rs. 632 and changed hands at Rs. 630.

At present the market is inclined to pay more attention to constructive factors and inflation feeling is inducing purchases. The industrial outlook remains encouraging with prospects of Tax relief while currency expansion continued, with large sums awaiting investments. Under such a state buyers are looking for substantial improvement in quotations.

GOLD & SILVER

The local Bullion market after rapid movement was somewhat quiet today. Forward gold after advancing to Rs. 83/10 quietened at Rs. 83, while next settlement was quoted at Rs. 82/12. Ready gold was quoted at Rs. 83/2. Forward silver was done at Rs. 133/14 and Ready Silver was quoted at Rs. 134.

The market was subjected to profit taking by professional operators. The recent rise attracted increased supplies but the demand remains fairly active. Professional operators are making a big show of liquidation but moderate realising is meant to keep up healthy state of the market and as long as increase in note circulation continues, there can be no material decline except moderate setbacks. In fact short sales are mainly responsible for the huge demand and pushing up of quotations. The market ruled quiet and forward gold was placed at Rs. 82/4 and Silver at Rs. 133/14. The market finally closed as under:

Ready Gold	81	9	0
Forward Gold	81	10	0
Forward Silver	134	2	0

YOU CAN BE YOUNG IN 24 HOURS

"OTOGEN" (VITAMIN TONIC) makes a man or woman look and feel 15 to 20 years younger than the actual age. It is useful for loss of vigour, impure blood, mental and physical exhaustion. It gives good appetite and increases weight from 5 to 10 lbs. within a week. The roses return to your cheeks and your appearance is improved 100%. The brilliance and lustre on your face will be the same as in youth when your skin was smooth and fresh "OTOGEN" improves your looks, puts a sparkle into your eyes, rosy colour into your cheeks and lips. It darkens the whitish grey hair permanently for life and gives natural new teeth to the old men.

"OTOGEN" was tried in SWITZERLAND upon an emaciated male patient aged above 100 years. Only by one month's regular use of this marvellous preparation that patient of 100 years age gained the health of a 30 years young man and has recently married a young wife. The actors and actresses of HOLLYWOOD are active young looking, and charming by the use of this medicine even at an advanced age of 80 and 90 years and they are enthusiastically working on the stages. The use of "OTOGEN" by females in their prime of life guarantees up to the last days of life never-fading charms of youth and preserves school-girl complexion all along. For Males in their period of youth, Otogen wards off premature old age, retains the jet black hair, a bloomy face and a robust health throughout and makes one feel and look several years younger than the actual age.

"OTOGEN" was once put in a glass tumbler for a long time and that GLASS TUMBLER turned to be an unbreakable one and could not actually be broken to pieces though severe strokes had been blown on the same. It has been tested and approved by thousands and thousands in ENGLAND and is now available in India. Commence taking "OTOGEN" immediately and let the results speak for themselves. Moreover, before commencing the test, weigh yourself, look in the mirror and observe your appearance. Then at the end of one week look again in the mirror, note exactly how you look and feel, and appreciate the effects of taking "OTOGEN".

In order to popularise "OTOGEN" in India, the price is to be Rs. 5/- only for a very short period, after some time its original price of Rs. 30 will be charged. Order to-day for to-morrow may be too late as there is limited stock on account of war conditions.

GUARANTEE.—A Cash Reward of £500 shall be awarded to any scientist or medical man or any of the public who proves the inefficacy of our most wonderful invention.

NOTE:—Unlike other Rejuvenators "Otogen" is the only one of its kind which yields equally splendid results even in the EXTREMES OF HEAT OF TROPICAL SUMMERS as in winter or any other mild and temperate climate.

Under the burning heat of summer Sun WHEN YOU ARE AT ZERO, OTOGEN IS ALSO AN EXCELLENT RESTORATIVE.
